

Monroe Reservoir Heritage Days Weekend

JULY 6-8, 2007 AT PAYNETOWN SRA

1760-1890 PERIOD

Held annually on the weekend following the Fourth of July. Pioneer traders, crafts, skills. Revolutionary war, Civil war, Indian and early western expansion

-NEXT TO THE PAYNETOWN BEACH-

Saturday

9-11:30 a.m. Demonstrations on camp skills and period
reenactment

11:30- 1:00 pitch-in break for lunch

1-6 p.m. - demonstrations;
tomahawk throwing, weaving, pottery, flint knapping, Indian, Civil War, Cowboy and Mountain man reenactors, story telling

1-5 p.m. - Music by the fire,
The Griffin Family

Dulcimer, guitar and fiddle

8:00 p.m. Friendship Stew!

Sunday

9:30 a.m. Non-denominational Church service

Monroe Reservoir, Paynetown S.R.A.

4850 South State Road 446

Bloomington, IN 47404

Phone- 812-837-9546 Fax- 812-837-9985

For more information- RWatters@dnr.in.gov

Friday 2p.m.- 7p.m.

Camp set up and stories

Sat. 9a.m.-9p.m.

Demonstrations- music-stories (tall tales!)

Sun. 9a.m.- Noon

Church service- activities

Camp break down